

BIRD ON A WIRE

Posted on 2017-05-15 2019-12-16 by spd_wp_admin

Well Dear Reader,

This past weekend we had a friend from the west coast visit us. Sunday morning we visited one of my recurring photographic destinations just west of Calgary in the Alberta foothills. We ambled over hill and dale for an easy 8 kilometers sometimes in silence, sometimes chatting, and often with fingers on shutters. It was a good morning.

I'm going to have to get out there! Love the first landscape, and the one of the fence with the mountains peering over.

Love the photos, Sean! Lots of diagonals.
