Posted on 2018-12-29 2019-12-17 by spd_wp_admin

Thursday night was let's photograph murals in the Calgary Beltline as per the map from BUMP (Beltline Urban Murals Project) <http://yycbump.ca/wp-content/uploads/2018/09/2018-BUMP-Mural-Map.pdf>. Keith (<http://keithsodyssey.blogspot.com/2018/12/wide-to-long.html>), as always, was an enjoyable accomplice (he also had the map and the car).

This post comes in 3 parts

~ The Photos

~ A short babble about cropping

~ A list of murals. If you know of other murals, please let me know and I will add to the list.
