Dear Reader (2024-03-04),

As per Five Stans 15 (2024-03-01), here is the next collection of images from Tajikistan (September 2023), Out and About.

Notes on Photos

~ 01 – A museum attendant strikes a pose for me.

~ 02 – We have lunch in a private home where a table can be booked. The owner is a collector of so many things. I would like to spend a month or three “framing” all his wonders some of which probably had value. Other objects were Tajik kitsch.

~ 03 – Another day another lunch stop. We sit in chairs. Tajik travelers sprawl on cushions.

~ 04 to 06 – In Dushanbe at night the lights turn on and people of all ages go for a walk and a look.

~ 07 to 12 – It is a long drive to Iskanderkul Lake and then less than an hour's walk to a waterfall.

~ 07 – The road to the lake is on the left of the river. The path to the falls is on the right.
